Day 2: Fly to Pokhara and Explore Pokhara city

Breakfast and check out from the hotel. Drive to Kathmandu Domestic Airport and catch a flight to Pokhara. You will reach Pokhara within Half hour. After reaching Pokhara, check in to the hotel and proceed for Half day city tour. you will visit Davis Falls, Gupteshwor Cave, and Tibetan Refugee Camp.

Davis Fall: Locally known as the Patale Chango, Davi's Fall is a ferocious waterfall located about 2 km southwest of Pokhara Airport on the Siddhartha Highway. The source of the waterfall is Phewa Lake and the fall itself is named after a Swiss lady who was swept away by the fall in 1961. The fall cuts through the rocks to create complex caves and tunnels on its path. Gupteshwor Mahadev cave on the other side of the fall is one such cave carved by Devi's Fall. The sacred shrine dedicated to Shiva is popular among the local residents and is seldom missed by tourists to Davi's Fall.

Tibetan Camp: It is a Tibetan Settlement near Davis Falls. Here you can overlook the Tibetan culture and their residence. They also have small shops for selling the things brought from their country and also a carpet showroom with a gallery containing all of their history coming to Pokhara. Afterward, drive to Peace stupa locally known as Shanti stupa which is located at the top of the hill and you can overlook Phewa lake and Pokhara city. After finishing the tour stop for a lunch at Pokhara, Lakeside. After lunch, drive back to the hotel and rest. Dinner can be served around the lakeside where you can enjoy the lake vibe during the evening. overnight at the hotel and prepare for your trek to Ghorepani.

Day 3: Drive from Pokhara to Ulleri via Nayapul and trek to Ghorepani (2,840m).

This is the first day of the ABC Poon Hill Trek. The trek begins at Ulleri (1,960m) after 3 to 4 hours of driving from Pokhara via Nayapul (1,010m), Birethanti, Tikhedhunga (1160m), and Hille (1,495m). We begin by walking through the village and farm terraces, gradually ascending through dense forests of oak and rhododendrons towards Banthanti (2,250m). Then continue walking towards Nangethanti (2,460m), arriving after an hour at Ghorepani (2840m). Spend the night at a Teahouse.

Day 4: Hike up Ghorepani to Poon Hill (3210m) and Tadapani (2520m).

We'll hike up to Poon Hill (3210m) early in the morning for about 45 minutes. This viewpoint offers an unobstructed and beautiful view of the sunrise over the high Himalayas, including Dhaulagiri (8,167m), Annapurna (8,091m), Machhapuchere, Nilgiri, Hiuchuli, South Annapurna, and others. In addition, we can see a network of other peaks appearing before our eyes as if by magic. We return to Ghorepani for a hot breakfast before beginning our walk to Tadapani. The trail ascends alongside ridges with pine and rhododendron forests to Deurali before descending through beautiful waterfalls, streams, and dense forest to Banthanti. The streams have some clear pools alongside the trail which finally climbs up to the final destination Tadapani meaning 'hot water.' This is the water supply for a village far away. We spend a night at Tadapani.

- Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 5: Trek from Tadapani to Chomrong (2140m)

After breakfast, the trail descends steeply through rhododendron forests and terrace fields to Kimrong Khola, which provides excellent views of the upper Modi valley. After crossing the suspension bridge, continue on to a Gurung village. If you feel so inclined, you can make a financial contribution to the schoolchildren and school welfare. The trail continues from here, gradually ascending through the forests with a massive landslide ridge - an easy walk to Chomrrong (2140 m). We can see the mighty peak of Annapurna South, Hiuchuli, Gangapurna, and Fishtail in the distance. Stay in a lodge for the night.

- Elevation of Chhomrrong: 2140m
- Trek duration: 4 to 5 hrs
- Accommodation: Tea house/Lodge
- Meal: Full-board Tea/coffee en route , Lunch, Dinner

Day 6: Trek from Chomrrong to Dovan

The trail descends a stone staircase to the Chhomrrong Khola before ascending to the small village of Sinuwa (2340m). The trail continues through the dense forest. The path then descends very steeply through thick bamboo at the bottom of the gorge to Bamboo. After lunch, we hike up the Modi Khola forest to the Dovan. Spend the night in a guesthouse.

- Elevation of Dovan: 2500m
- Trek duration: 5 to 6 Hours
- Accommodation: Tea house/Lodge
- Meal: Full-board Tea/coffee en route , Lunch, Dinner

Day 7: Trek from Dovan to Deurali

Today is a short day trek to altitude, with the risk of snow avalanches in the area we must cross the next morning. We'll be climbing through serene bamboo and rhododendron mixed forests near the Himalayan Hotel the entire way. Previously, this area, known as Hinko cave, was used as a porter's shelter. We then proceed to Deurali. The avalanche-prone section of trail is located on the ridge above Hinko. Spend the night in a guesthouse.

- Elevation of Deurali: 3200m
- Trek duration: 5 to 6 Hours
- Accommodation: Tea house/Lodge
- Meal: Full-board Tea/coffee en route ,Lunch, Dinner

Day 8: Trek from Deurali to Annapurna Base Camp (4130m), passing through Machhapuchre Base Camp (3700m)

After breakfast, the trail takes us into the heart of the Sanctuary, to the Annapurna Base Camp, where we would spend the night. For a few hours, the trail ascends, passing some roofless shepherd's huts along the side of a moraine - this area is windy and frequently snowbound. The trail continues climbing past the Machhapuchre Base Camp (3,700m), which isn't really a base camp because climbing the mountain is prohibited. We'll walk for 2 hours from here to Annapurna Base Camp through spectacular Himalaya scenery with amazing panoramic views of snow-capped mountains surrounding you. You have the rest of the day to explore and relax.

- Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 9: Trek back from Annapurna base camp/ MBC to Bamboo

After breakfast we drop down to Bamboo, collecting boundless experiences. This morning we glimpse sunrise and the last evening sunset over Mt. Annapurna I, Annapurna Fangs. The unobstructed views of mountain scenery, which is very spectacular as it's totally surrounded by mountains. We now come to know why this area is known as the Annapurna Sanctuary. After having spent a great time here, we retrace the journey back to Bamboo for the overnight stay. You can rest and relax in the evening with an unforgettable view of the many snow-capped peaks and enjoy dinner.

- Elevation of Bamboo: 2345m
- Trek duration: 5 to 6 Hours
- Accommodation: Tea house/Lodge
- Meal: Full-board Tea/coffee en route, Lunch, Dinner

Day 10: Trek Bamboo to Jhinu Danda (hot spring) (1780m)

The trail follows the same route until Chhomrong. Once we have passed Khuldighar there is an experimental sheep farm, the trail continues through rhododendron and bamboo forests with majestic mountains scenery, especially Mt. Machhapuchre (6,997m). From the ancient Gurung village Chomrong, the trail descends very steeply to the Jhinu hot springs, where you can bathe in natural hot springs only 20 minutes from our hotel. The rest of the day and stay overnight.

- Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 11: Trek Jhinu Danda to Siwai (1230m) /Syauli Bazaar
