

MARDI HIMAL TREK WITH POKHARA AND CHITWAN

The Mardi Himal Trek is one of the hidden gemstones when it comes to trekking within the Annapurna Region. where most of the people could do the trek to Annapurna Base Camp, you have got the opportunity to move across the corner of the map and get off the beaten track. The Mardi Himal trekking journey takes you to the base camp of Mardi Himal, right inside the laps of Mardi Himal and Machhapuchre, dubbed Fish Tail Mountain. on the Mardi Himal Trek, you get the views without the crowds. expect real teahouses, stunning rhododendron forests, and the most incredible perspectives of the Annapurna Mountain variety. you will get the eye in eye with giants like Mardi Himal, Machhapuchre, Annapurna South, and Himchuli. The Annapurna Region, along with the rest of Nepal has 4 distinct seasons. Spring, Summer, Autumn, and Winter. The months from March to May and from October or November are the most popular for trekking this Annapurna classic. What must be said, is that every trekking season offers its own excitement and atmosphere for hikers.

Itinerary

Day 1: ARRIVAL DAY AT KATHMANDU

Arrival at Kathmandu, Going Nepal member will be Welcome at Tribhuvan International airport and transferred to the hotel. Check in to the hotel refresh yourself and discuss about the trip to Pokhara tomorrow with a welcome dinner at a Nepali restaurant with the member of Going Nepal. Back to the hotel and overnight.

Day 2: FLY TO POKHARA AND HALFDAY SIGHTSEEING

After morning breakfast, we start our way to Pokhara. After Half hour of flight, we arrive at Pokhara a city with a lake, check in to the hotel refresh yourself and move for Looking around Pokhara covering Davis Fall, Tibetan Refugee Camp, Seti gorge & Fewa Lake with 1 hour boat ride on Lake Fewa. Rest of the day visit Lake Areas. Return to hotel & dinner and overnight and prepare for the trekking trip

Day 3: DRIVE TO KANDE AND TREK TO DEURALI

After a pleasantly prepared hot breakfast; we drive an hour to Kande and start our trip at Kande a height of 1770 meters. 1.5 Hours move up takes to the delightful villa of Australian Camp at the elevation of 2100m. The path to the Australian camp from Kande is a tough and charming simple approach Pothana from that point, and it is a continuous approach Deurali (2200m) around 2 hours where you stay in a tea house stop for the first night. It is a simple beginning for the first day. Dinner and overnight at the Deurali.

Day 4: TREK TO LOW CAMP

From Deurali; we leave the main Annapurna trail and remove the beaten path to Mardi Himal Headquarters to the correct side and proceed with a peaceful path through a thick wood of oak, maple, hemlock, and rhododendron. About 4 hours of wilderness walk will acquire us at the getting free from the backwoods at Timberland Camp or additionally referred to by local people as Kokar, here we take a mid-day break then we actually keep on increasing to Low Camp through the woods anyway as we climb the vegetation begins to change with more rhododendron and the trees are covered with greenery, lichen and tree greeneries. After a long and extreme day, we arrive at Low camp where you will be resting and stay Overnight in Low Camp.

Day 5: TREK TO HIGH CAMP

1.5 hours moving through rhododendron woods takes us to the Center camp and then to Badal Danda offers a staggering perspective on Mardi Himal, Annapurna South, Himchuli, Gangapurna, Machhapuchre, and Mardi Himal itself. An hour or so above Low Camp the path breaks out over the timberline and towards the west, there is a decent view to Annapurna South and Himchuli. The path proceeds with the Mardi Himal edge chiefly on the grass with some secluded rhododendron shrubs en route. Post for the brilliant Danphe fowl on this part of the path. The hotel at High Camp is bigger than lodges at Low Camp and Timberland Camp, the view from the hotel is heavenly to Annapurna South, Himchuli, and Machhapuchre (Fishtail). Dinner and Overnight at the High Camp.

Day 6: HIKE TO MARDI HIMAL BC

The plan for today is to wake right on time for a dawn perspective on the mountains then after an early breakfast stroll up the edge towards Mardi Himal Headquarters. There is a grounded trail through the grass a few more extreme segments anyway generally speaking not very testing. Post for the dzokpo (yak/cow crossbreeds) eating up here just as Danphe bird. In the mid-year, the sheep and goats from lower towns are raised to touch here so you will pass some of the herder's cottages en route. Following three hours you should arrive at Headquarters at the height of 4500m this is the place where one can investigate the Annapurna Asylum and the scene see is tremendous taking a gander at the south essence of Annapurna and the entirety of the tops in the Safe-haven just as Hiunchuli and Machhapuchre (Fishtail). We return to High camp for lunch at that point backtrack back to Center Camp or Low Camp.

Day 7: TREK TO SIDING VILLAGE

In transit back we take an alternate course so finishing a circuit, from Low Camp there is a path that goes down to Siding town instead of returning down Mardi Himal back to Kokar. Siding is a conventional Nepalese town and still a lot of away from the busier present-day traveler trips and it is likely you will remain at a homestay in Siding. It is a brilliant social encounter discovering more about town life and you will presumably eat dhal bhat (Authentic Nepali Meal) in the evening and overnight at Siding Village

Day 8: TREK TO LUMLE AND DRIVE TO POKHARA

From Siding, you leave to the street head at Lumre, in transit from Siding you will pass the towns of Kalimati and Ghalel. Kalimati is essentially a Brahmin town with Ghalel and Siding blended Brahmin and Gurung. At Lumre you will meet a jeep coordinated by Going Nepal ahead of time to drive you back to Pokhara. After reaching Pokhara rest of the day you can relax inside the hotel premises. Dinner and overnight
