Evening free walk in Thimphu City. Overnight in Thim

Day 4: Thimphu - Paro tours

Drive to Paro Transfer to the trailhead and begin your trek to Taktsangang (Tiger's Lair) monastery Bhutan's most famous sight. Your guide can arrange pony/horse for ride uphill till the Cafeteria, but one must be able to walk after that. A proper trekking boot or good walking shoes is necessary for this hike those who choose not to hike can stay back with the driver and tour around Paro. Overnight in Paro Taktshang - Tiger's Nest: Taktshang or 'Tiger's Nest' as it is often referred to for Taktshang Pelphung monastery, is one of the most venerated and famous of Bhutan's monasteries. It is located on the face of a 900m sheer cliff. An impressive unmissable site, but accessible only by walk or to ride mules/pony. Taktshang was rebuilt by a population of Tseno village. Again in April of 1998, a major fire destroyed the main structure of the building and its contents (some believe it to be arson). Reconstruction began in 2000 and was completed and consecrated after extensive efforts and financial support from Governments as well as donors.
