Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival in Kathmandu

We'll be picking you up from the Tribhuvan international airport and checking you into the Hotel Soaltee the five-star hotel in Kathmandu. Kathmandu airport can be a bit of an experience unto itself. At the hotel, you will be receiving a warm welcome with soft drinks.

Day 2: Flight for Mountain Heli Tour

The Everest Heli tour begins early in the morning at around 6:00 AM. Where the trek representative will be arrived at your doorstep to transfer you to the Domestic Airport from your hotel. As soon as you complete your security check and you will be driven to the Helipad whereby you can interact with the Pilot and who will be briefing you about the flight, its regulations, and its route.

After a short discussion, you will fly to Everest Base camp via another Himalayan range. You will be landed at Kalapather in front of Everest to see the peculiar view of Everest. As earlier as you complete your personal stuff, you will be taken back to Shyangboche (at the Everest view hotel which is situated at the world's highest altitude) whereby you can have an excellent view of colors changing mountains, and experience rare wildlife right from the hotel courtyard such as Musk Deer, Pheasant, Tahar, and many more. Which is also known as the best place for mountain photography, filming, television, and video documentaries. After your breakfast, you will be taken back to Kathmandu.
