Itinerary

Day 1: Arrive at Kathmandu

Upon your arrival at Tribhuvan International Airport in Kathmandu and completion of formalities at the immigration, you shall be welcomed by a representative of Going Nepal. After then you shall be escorted to the hotel for your stay. Stroll around the streets of Kathmandu later in the day. Stay overnight in Kathmandu in a five-star property. Hotel Dwarika's or similar luxury property.

Day 2: Kathmandu Sightseeing

We will begin this tour by sightseeing some of the important heritage of Kathmandu. Starting from the Boudhanath stupa, the Hindu masterpiece of Pashupatinath Temple and Kathmandu Durbar Square. we have diverse sites today. Boudhanath Stupa is one of the largest stupas in the world and the largest spherical stupa in Nepal with a large mandala. In the premise you shall have at least 29 monasteries and nunneries, all preserving the ancient heritage of Tibetan Buddhism. Chants of Buddhist mantras, whitewashed domes, colorful prayer flags, pleasant smells of incense, and celebration of rituals with great faith make this a wonderful and revered destination. Pashupatinath Temple, on the other hand, is a sacred Hindu temple with a large complex full of temples, ashrams, statues of deities as well as inscriptions and carvings. Kathmandu Durbar Square is a grand complex of historical importance with a Royal palace, unique temples, statues, and monuments, and a museum preserving the glorious history. Stay overnight in Kathmandu.

Day 3: City Sightseeing

After breakfast, your guide and driver will be waiting for you outside the hotel premises. After meeting with them proceed to visit the Swayambhunath Stupa or also known as the Monkey Temple in Kathmandu and the Patan Durbar Square in the neighboring city of Patan before moving on to Bhaktapur. Swayambhunath is one of the oldest religious heritages in Nepal with a whitewashed dome and the eyes of Buddha painted on the main stupa. Populated by several monkeys and decorated with big and small prayer wheels, prayer flags, and nearby Hindu temples, Swayambhunath Stupa is also famous for its beautiful view of Kathmandu valley. Patan Durbar Square, a royal complex dating back to the 3rd century, is highlighted by the historical royal palace and unique Krishna Temple. With stone taps, pagoda-styled temples, wooden, stone, and bronze carvings, and surrounding ancient monuments, Patan Durbar Square is a treat to explore. Further on, we shall explore two of the most beautiful rural settlements of Khokana and Bungamati. While Khokana is a shy Newari settlement in the outskirts of Patan famous for keeping its tradition, culture, and lifestyle as well as medieval settlement pattern intact, Bungamati is the hometown of the deity Machhindranath (the patron of Kathmandu valley) and the first Licchavi King Amshuverma. Both of these settlements have excellent sceneries. After finishing the trip, we can stop for a lunch somewhere in a local restaurant to try their local cultural Newari cuisine. Later drive back to the hotel, rest, have dinner, and overnight at the hotel.

Day 4: Sightseeing to Bhaktapur Durbar Square and Dhulikhel

Breakfast and We shall today explore the Bhaktapur Durbar Square before heading to Dhulikhel later in the afternoon. Founded in the 12th century, this complex has a historical royal palace known as 55 Window Palace surrounded by the colossal pagoda and Shikhar-styled temples, the artistic Golden Gate, and Lion's Gate, Nyatapole Temple among other ancient heritages. After exploring these monuments, we shall then head for the scenic town of Dhulikhel. After reaching Dhulikhel, check in to the hotel, and the rest of the time you can explore the resort or use the facilities available. Later in the evening, we shall watch the beautiful sunset over the Himalayas including Annapurna, Ganesh Himal, Langtang Peak, Gaurishanker, Lhotse, and many others. Stay overnight in Dhulikhel - Dwarika's Resort.

Day 5: Dhulikhel, Banepa and Sanga and back to Kathmandu

From Dhulikhel, today we shall be heading initially to Banepa. The first major town outside Kathmandu valley, Banepa is full of ancient Hindu and Buddhist temples, among which the temple of Chandeswari built in Newari style is a major attraction.

After visiting this important stop on the trade route to Tibet, we shall head to a small settlement of Sanga. Sanga is popular these days due to the statue of Lord Shiva, which is the world's tallest with a height of 143 feet. The surrounding area around Sanga is equally mesmerizing and beautiful. After that, we shall be driving back to Kathmandu in around one and a half hours. Stay overnight in Kathmandu in Dwarika's hotel or similar.
