Day 10: Fly back to Kathmandu - City tour

Breakfast and check out from the hotel. Transfer to Bharatpur Domestic Airport. You will reach Kathmandu within 30 minutes. After reaching Kathmandu, drive to visit Swayambhunath and Kathmandu Durbar Square.

Swayambhunath Stupa: Said to be around 2000 years old, this Buddhist Stupa sits atop 2 kilometers west of Kathmandu overlooking the valley. The oldest written reference to the stupa dates from the 5th century, but it could have existed much earlier. Moreover, a legend has it that the stupa evolved spontaneously at the time of the Kathmandu Valley's creation. Swayambhunath is famously known as the 'Monkey Temple' owing to the presence of a large number of monkeys around the area. Kathmandu Durbar Square- Kathmandu Durbar Square, also known as Basantapur Durbar and Hanuman Dhoka, is the old Durbar Square in downtown Kathmandu. Basantapur in the heart of the ancient city of Kathmandu will never impress visitors who came here for the first time, with its intricate wood carvings and rich history. Hanuman Dhoka was built during the Licchavi period (4th to 8th centuries AD) and King Pratap Malla expanded the building in the 17th century. With the highest concentration of ancient buildings, the square is home to many palaces, courtyards, and temples. It is also known as the "Temple Museum" because there are more than 50 temples in the square. Craft shops can be found on the grounds around Gaddi Baithak, where you will find several attractive crafts to buy. Among the 50 temples in the area is the temple of the titular deity, Taleju Bhawani. Durbar is divided into two courts, the outer Kasthamandap, Kumari Ghar, and Shiva-Parvati Temple, and the inner part consists of Hanuman Dhoka and the main palace. The next floors are transformed into museums dedicated to the three generations of the Shah of Nepal in Nepal. Most parts of the palace are open to tourists all week.

After finishing sightseeing in these historic places around Kathmandu, stop for a lunch and shop around one of the most happening places in Kathmandu 'Thamel'. Afterward, drive back to the hotel,

Includes: Private transfers, Guided city tours, English-speaking guide service, and entrance fees. Accommodation: Twin room sharing. Meals: Full-board (BLD).

Day 11: Excursion Bhaktapur Durbar Square - Patan Durbar Square

After breakfast fast, drive to visit World heritage sites as mentioned below: Bhaktapur Durbar Square (World Heritage Site): Among the three durbar squares, the Bhaktapur Durbar Square is by far the most elegant with its large open space facing south. The 15th-century Palace of 55 Carved Windows and the palace entrance, the Golden Gate a masterpiece in repousse art - have added splendor to this palace square which consists of buildings dating from the 13th century to the 18th century. The extraordinary Durbar Square with its extraordinary monuments reflects the glory days of the Malla dynasty when art and architecture thrived in the three cities of the valley. In front of the palace building are innumerable temples and architectural showpieces like the Lion Gate, the statue of King Bhupatindra Malla mounted on a giant stone pillar and the Batsala Temple. The stone temple of Batsala Devi is full of intricate carvings and is a beautiful example of Shikhara-style architecture. There is a bronze bell on the terrace of the temple, which is also known as the Bell of Barking Dogs.

PM: After Lunch in Bhaktapur; drive to Patan for sightseeing of Patan Durbar Square-Located about 5km south of Kathmandu, Patan is one of 3 royal cities in the valley. A destination for connoisseurs of fine arts, Patan is filled with wood and stone carvings, metal statues, and ornaments architecture, including dozens of Buddhist and Hindu temples, and over 1200 monuments.

Includes: Private transfers, Guided city tours, English-speaking guide service, entrance fees.

Accommodation: Hotel Majestic or Similar (3star Hotel) on twin sharing room Meals: Full-board (BLD).
